PLANTERAY JAMAICA 1984 RUM

Planteray Rum unveils its oldest rum to date, a 40-year-old Jamaican rarity from the Clarendon distillery, proudly carrying the MMW (Monymusk Wedderburn) mark. Distilled with precision in a double retort pot still, it achieves an ester target of 290-300 ppm fresh from the still, unveiling a unique and bold flavor profile, the quintessence of Jamaica. This exceptional rum, is a testament to Jamaican distilling excellence.

Limited to just one unique barrel, Planteray Rum reveils 317 numbered bottles. Each personally signed by our Master Blender, Alexandre Gabriel. A wooden cork that is carefully crafted by hand from the authentic cask staves that nurtured this rum, encapsulating the 40-year maturation journey. Indulge in the richness of history and flavor, a rare celebration of craftsmanship and time.

NOSE: VERY COMPLEX, SLIGHTLY SMOKY, AND MEATY WITH FRUITY, HERBAL, SOUR NOTES. NEXT VANILLA COMES FORWARD, ALMOST PASTRY-LIKE WITH COOKED BANANA, BITTER ORANGE PEEL, RIPE PINEAPPLE.

PALATE: DRY WITH A FLORAL AND FRUITY PROFILE OF ROSE WATER, SOUROP, PEAR, WHITE GRAPE, APRICOT, AND SUGAR-APPLE. NEXT COCONUT MILK, BALSAM, ALLSPICE, BREAD, AND NUTS EMERGE.
